

Introducing Axa Uno

Reece, Australia's leading name in bathrooms, presents the stunning Axa Uno range of designer toilet suites.

Crafted in Unoceramica's Italian studios in Civita Castellana, Axa by Unoceramica has succeeded in creating a range of beautiful and highly personal designs inspired by nature itself.

There are three striking styles available - a back to wall close coupled toilet, a back to wall pan and a wall hung pan. Of course, eco-friendly dual flushes and soft close seats come as standard across this Italian designer range.

Said Belinda Geels, Reece Bathroom Marketing Manager, "the Axa Uno range proves that there is no need to compromise on aesthetics when it comes to functionality. Australians are sure to appreciate this range as it truly represents the pinnacle of Italian design."

The Uno Axa range from Axa by Unoceramica is available exclusively at Reece. To locate your nearest Reece showroom visit www.reece.com.au.
